

SERVICE GOLD MEDAL 2014

Mr. Haresh B. Parekh

Mr. Haresh B. Parekh did his Diploma in Weaving from SASMIRA in the year 1977. After the completion of studies he joined Hindustan Spinning and Weaving Mills and there after served in reputed textile houses like Mafatlal Group of Industries, Standard Group and Orkay Silk Mills.

Mr. Parekh then joined Emvee Synthetics in Umbergaon and was designated as Factory Manager for 11 years. He was overall incharge of factory management, planning of Sulzer Weaving machines and took the initiatives to achieve zero-defect production. He also worked as a Factory Manager (Furnishing & Upholstery House) in Jaq-Cad Tex Fab (India) Pvt. Ltd. and is presently doing the consultancy in sizing process.

Mr. Parekh is the active member of The Textile Association (India), Mumbai Unit since 1983. He was the Hon. Jt. Gen. Secretary of TAI, Central Office from 2007 to July 2014. Mr. Parekh is the Hon. Gen. Secretary of The Textile Association (India), Central Office since July 2014. He also took keen interest in encouraging educational activities in the Association. Mr. Parekh as a Committee Member took active interest in organizing many conferences / seminars with the key intention of keeping the textile professionals update with the various developments in the technological field. Mr. Parekh was the Exhibition Convenor of the first historic exhibition organized by The Textile Association (India), Mumbai Unit in October 2013 at VIA Ground, Vapi (Gujarat). This exhibition was a great success in the history of TAI.

Mr. Parekh has presented the paper on "The Process of Warping and Sizing of Continuous Viscose Filament Yarn" in the One Day Seminar on "Sizing the Key Stone for Quality Fabrics" held on 14th June 1996 in Mumbai.

He was conferred with Service Memento in the year 2006 by The Textile Association (India) for his enormous contribution to the field of Textiles during the 62nd All India Textile Conference organized by TAI at Chandigarh. He received "SASMIRA Star Alumni Award" by SASMIRA, Mumbai in April 2014.

Mr. Parekh was conferred with the "Bharat Jyoti Award" by India International Friendship Society for his achievement along with the Certificate of Excellence on 24th November 2014, at New Delhi.

Mr. Haresh B. Parekh receiving Service Gold Medal by hands of Shri Nitin Gadkari ji

Mr. Haresh B. Parekh has been awarded with Service Gold Medal, for the recognition of his services to the Association at National level, during the 12th International & 70th All India Textile Conference held on 17th January, 2014 at Nagpur, Vidarbha.