

HONORARY F.T.A – 2018

Pro. (Dr.) R. V. Adivarekar

Prof. (Dr.) R.V. Adivarekar is heading the Department of Fibres & Textile Processing Technology at Institute of Chemical Technology (ICT), Matunga, Mumbai since year 2008 and working as a Professor in Fibre Chemistry for last 18 years with expertise in Textile processing. As a research guide, he has guided successfully 9 Doctoral students & 47 Master Students & presently guiding 17 doctoral & 7 master students. In last five years he has successfully completed 4 government and 8 industry sponsored projects and has ongoing 5 government and 1 industry projects worth more than 15 crores. One of them being the Capacity building of the Ethiopian Textile Industry sponsored by Federal Republic of Ethiopia which has been successfully completed and phase II in negotiation.

He has filed 3 patents and published more than 100 research papers in journals of national and international repute and over 50 conference proceedings.

He is life member of Textile Association of India, Indian fibres society, Indian Natural Fibre Society and Editor of Journal of Textile Association. He has served as Governor Nominee to Academic Council of the North Maharashtra University, member of Board of studies and Faculties of the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda in textile chemistry and Mumbai University and as member on many governmental advisory and selection committees.

He is presently a member of expert committee constituted by Ministry of Environment, Forest & Climate Change, Govt. of India to assess issues related to environmental pollutions from textile mills identified as discharging effluent into river Ganga mainstem and its tributaries and Member of Task Force on Research on Technology Development in Silk and its application in Biomaterials- Department of Biotechnology, Ministry of Science & Technology, Govt. of India.

Prof. (Dr.) R. V. Adivarekar receiving the Honorary F.T.A. award by hands of Chief Guest Dr. T. R. Dinakaran, Chairman, Shri Ramalinga Group of Mills, Aruppukkottai,

Prof. (Dr.) R. V. Adivarekar has been awarded Honorary F.T.A. for the significant contribution in the academic field during the 74th All India Textile Conference held on 15th December, 2018 at Coimbatore (South India Unit).